Instructor's Results by Course and Section (Written Comments)

	Course Code-Section	Comment
1	PHL708-011	Chris Dragos is clearly very knowledgeable about modern philosophy, and dedicated to his students' learning. His presentation slides are excellent, and he is a good speaker. He is also very approachable and gives written feedback on papers, which is helpful and rare. Most importantly, Prof. Dragos consistently tries to make sure his students understand what he teaches. I always had an interest in learning about philosophy, but thanks to this course, I now also see the value of learning it.
2	PHL708-011	Dr. Dragos provides meaningful feedback along with an ideal evaluation structure. He is more than willing to help students think through the problems directly and indirectly related to the course on an individual basis.
3	PHL708-011	Dr. Dragos really goes out of his way to give student the 100% of support they need when learning such difficult content. He is always available for extra help and is not quick to dismiss students (no matter how many times they ask for help) 10/10
4	PHL708-011	He is very smart and inspires me to do my best and learn more. He should be paid more because he is doing such a good job. Hope to see him teaching around ryerson more often
5	PHL708-011	Honestly, great teacher. Very understanding and is flexible with the course. Overall, I would enroll in his class again.
6	PHL708-011	My only (extremely personal, probably) issue is that the quizzes conflict with my out of university schedule, so I often miss them.
7	PHL708-011	Overall the class is taught with passion and enthusiasm. Despite multiple cancellations this semester the prof made the most out of our limited time. One improvement that could be made would be the PowerPoint slides. For people who do not show up to class but would still like to understand the profs interpretation or explanation the current slides provide very little information in relation to the profs very detailed lectures.
8	PHL708-011	Professor Dragos is excellent and I would take another course with him again, he while thoroughly covering the course material makes the class engaging as well as providing the premier examples to aid in explaining. He is also extremely knowledgeable in the topics taught in class and will readily answer any questions proposed.
9	PHL708-011	The prof is knowledgeable about the subject matter but seems to be unsure and question himself. Good guy
10	PHL708-011	This is based more in Philosophy of Science specifically, which is the instructors area of speciality. There could be other areas of focus for modern philosophy, like ethics and epistemology. The focus on PHL Science is challenging, but that is a personal hurdle. I believe Chris is well informed in this area and makes the class fun.
