Instructor's Results by Course and Section (Written Comments)

	Course Code-Section	Comment
1	PHL110-011	Chris Dragos was the best professor I could've asked for in Philosophy. I would 100% recommended him to another student.
2	PHL110-011	Chris does an amazing job of explaining everything that students may not know, even basic terms, without making students feel stupid (for lack of a better word). He treats everyone with respect and has an incredible understanding of the course material, excellent educator!
3	PHL110-011	Dr. Dragos presents the course material with passion and is always willing to help his students! He always marks things on time and hussles to get our marks back before course drop dates! He is so considerate and caring.
4	PHL110-011	Great professor. Very knowledgeable and presents material in a clear and concise manner. Always willing to go the extra mile to ensure students understand philosophical concepts
5	PHL110-011	He is a great professor and his lectures are extremely engaging
6	PHL110-011	Professor Dragos is an amusing teacher. At the beginning of course I wasn't interested in learning and took the course out of the sake of it. After having Dragos as a professor, I became more intrigued to learn about religion and the philosophy behind it. It encouraged me to take another philosophy course similar to this one. 5/5
7	PHL110-011	The professor does a good job of explaining philosophy that wouldn't otherwise be understood. The examples are easy to understand and he often goes over the same materiel which is helpful to remember the content from the previous week
8	PHL110-011	Wonderful at his job. Uses helpful examples to explain complicated material. Overall an amazing professor!
9	PHL110-011	very nice professor with lots of patience. phi is so boring and hard to understand, but he provides some examples to help us to understand concepts easily and clearly.
10	PHL110-021	Dr. Dragos is one of my favourite professors this year. I am very glad I took this course. The way he explains complex philosophical arguments is very helpful and as an engineering student who took the course without any prior knowledge I love the content and concepts a lot.
11	PHL110-021	Dr. Dragos' handling of the situation resulting from the Covid-19 virus is exemplary and definitely noteworthy.
12	PHL110-021	I'm actually majoring in Biology so I took this course as an elective. I was doubtful at first since philosophy courses are a lot to think about and they demand you to actually understand the content and not just memorize it. However, I found myself watching videos or even reading some stuff about the topics in my free time because the outline and the way Prof. Dragos presented it made me like the course. I enjoyed the way we assumed each argument with an objective point of view and how you had to work through all the lines of thinking for a better understanding of the material. The course copped perfectly with all the other courses I had and didn't demanded endless hours of studying for some of good understanding. Thank you for a good elective and semester
13	PHL110-021	Prof. Dragos is the best professor I have come across so far at Ryerson. It is obvious he takes the material seriously and teaches with enthusiasm. His testing is fair and not overly difficult; there are no surprises on tests that would detrimentally affect a student who has studied sufficiently. He is quite open and strives to give feedback in a timely manner, even going above and beyond for the sake of the students (i.e., returning assignments before significant course drop dates). Such a professor is rare and greatly appreciated in my eyes.
14	PHL110-021	Professor Dragos is an amazing professor, a true gift to Ryerson. I took this course as an elective, and I don't think I would have enjoyed it even close to the extent that I have because of him. He is extremely knowledgeable, kind, encourages discussion during lectures with his students, and understanding. An amazing professor overall
15	PHL110-021	Professor Dragos is one of the best professors I've had thus far at Ryerson! The manner in which he presents the content makes it very easy to grasp especially for those new to philosophy. His sense of humour really lets him be more approachable. A very humble and kind guy who genuinely cares about his job and wants to see his students succeed. He puts himself in our shoes as he was once in his undergrad himself and I very much appreciate him for that!
16	PHL110-021	The course is taught in a way that makes the content very clear and therefore, easy to learn. The evaluations can be lengthy, but very fair in terms of testing exactly on the course material with no surprises.
17	PHL110-021	Very knowledgeable professor and very interesting to listen to.
18	PHL110-021	While it is unfortunate the Philosophy department has decided to get rid of an excellent professor like Paul Bali, Professor Dragos offers a comparable learning experience. And that's pretty much the highest praise I can possibly give for a philosophy professor! Congratulations, 10/10!
19	PHL110-021	You've handled things really well this semester given all these COVID-19 issues. I also thought that your lectures were good and you are very thoughtful prof. If this wasn't my last semester at Ryerson, I would have definitely taken more courses with you if possible. Thank you for a great semester!
20	PHL508-011	Great class, just wish there was more opportunities to participate
21	PHL508-011	If he is interested, hire him already. Chris does a tremendous job of encouraging students to clarify their thoughts and articulate them.
22	PHL508-011	Instructor is very well informed on what he is teaching. The way he teaches/explains subject matter really makes a difference on my learning. I felt like i never had a problem understanding what he taught. One of the best instructors of philosophy that iv'e seen.
